

PUBLIC LEDGER

WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1887.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1895.

MAYSVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

SOMETHING DOING.

A dashing young lady named Masure
Was always maintained her composure
But she slipped on a post.
Gave a short little squeal,
And the rest was an awful exposure.

THE LEDGER delights in obliging its friends. It prints "Help Wanted," "Situations Wanted," "Lost" and "Found" notices free of charge; and as it costs you nothing for such service, don't you think it is as little as you can do to write the copy and either bring or send it to the office?

If you have an item of news, please call up The Ledger, Telephone 33, and let us have it.

R. H. Powell, candidate for member of Board of Education from the Fourth Ward.

Dr. A. G. Browning was yesterday called to Concord in consultation with Dr. L. A. Grimes.

Perley L. McCane of Bracken county was married in Cincinnati Wednesday to Miss Clara R. Meyer.

James Pendleton of Paris and Miss Hattie R. Crouch of Owensville eloped and were married at Mt. Sterling.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Burdick, late residing at 424 Forest avenue, are now located at 824 Washington avenue, Newport.

A record was made at the Ashland Steel Company's plant a few days ago, when, in a twelve-hour run, 295 tons of steel were turned out.

Mr. A. L. Houston, the mother of Mrs. Carrie Fisher of this city, has been very ill at her home at Beechburg, Fleming county, but is now better.

The safest way when voting a mixed ticket is to place a cross mark at the right of the name of every candidate for whom you desire to vote.

Clarence L. Salter is a candidate for second term on the Board of Education from the Fourth Ward and respectfully solicits your support.

Mr. Roby McCall, well known here, is now clerk on the Ironton wharfoat. Mr. McCall was for sixteen years clerk on various Ohio river steamboats.

A level headed man with some idea of how to spend money to the best advantage for all the people is what is needed to make a good Magistrate. Vote for James Stewart in District No. 1, and you'll make no mistake.

G. E. Smith and J. W. Wood and two unknown men, part of the gang of burglars who attempted to rob the Bank at Willard, are now in Jail at Grayson. The two men who escaped are being followed by a posse and bloodhounds.

A quart bottle of whisky was placed in the contraband hand on the statue of General John C. Breckinridge, which adorns the public square at Lexington, Halloween night. The act was the work of some Halloween pranks, and caused much indignation.

We are showing a fine line of Diamonds, some of the very newest settings. Our $5 Diamond Ring is a beautiful cut stone as nicely cut as the $100 Diamond. Beautifully mounted, this ring sells every where for $10, our price $5. Other Diamonds sold in same proportion.
MURPHY, the Jeweler.

In M. C. Russell Company's big store is a separating machine for cleaning clover seed. It is wonderful how perfectly it accomplishes its purpose. There are three apartments—the perfect seed comes out of one funnel, the imperfect another and the sand and foreign substance another. It is ingenious and unique in its makeup and worth seeing.

It behooves the voting public to vote for the candidate for Representative who has at heart their interests;—a man who has been tried in several positions of public trust, and who has always measured up to the full standard of honesty and public efficiency. Such a man is Esq. John Ryan, the Independent candidate for Representative, a man of the people and for the people.

"A Subscriber to The Ledger" has sent to this office a communication on the all-important tobacco question. Now, there are about a thousand-and-a-half subscribers to THE LEDGER, and it's impossible to guess just which particular one it was who wrote the communication. Send your name to this office; the article is sensible and well written, and you needn't be ashamed to see it in print. Please understand, your name will not be printed in connection with the publication; but the Editor has a foolish notion of wanting to know, privately, just who writes good articles for his paper. Upon receipt of your name—and you can send it on a card in a sealed envelope, or call in person and leave it,—your communication will be printed with much pleasure.

SWEET CIDER

Only 25 cents a gallon. Make your mince meat NOW. New Raisins, Currants, Citron, Orange and Lemon Peel. Catawba Grapes.

MOSS—M'CANN.

At Lexington Wednesday afternoon occurred the marriage of Mr. Dulin Moss and Miss Mildred McCann, the ceremony being performed at the home of the officiating Minister, the Rev. C. Hardin Branch.

Mr. Moss is a former Maysville boy, leaving here a few years since for Lexington, where he has been engaged in various branches of newspaper work, at present being connected with The Herald.

His many friends here join in hearty congratulations.

SUDDENLY SUMMONED

Hon. Lawrence T. Neal Died Yesterday at Chillicothe, O.

Major W. H. Means received a telegram last afternoon from Chillicothe, O., announcing the death of Hon. Lawrence T. Neal.

His death was sudden, and heart disease is the supposed cause.

Mr. Neal was one of the most prominent Democratic politicians in Ohio, at one time being a candidate for Governor.

Miss Bessie Finnell, a niece of Mrs. Means, married a nephew of Mr. Neal.

WASHINGTON CEMETERY

How Rev. Father Jones Has Transformed That Silent City

It has not been so very many years since the ground now occupied by the Catholic Cemetery at Washington was a barren waste.

It is within the recollection of the present generation that the wonderful change in the sacred ground has been wrought.

Under the wise direction of a master hand during the past few years order and arrangement have supplanted chaos.

Unightly gullies and mounds have given place to broad driveways and substantial walks.

Scope and amplitude is in evidence on every hand.

Beautiful flowers, shrubbery and choice plants dominate in all directions.

The perspective view as one approaches the Cemetery is enchanting, so beautiful does the "Silent City of the Dead" rise up before you.

It is a spot dear to all.

Here peacefully sleep those we mingled with and loved in life.

Who does not revere the memory of the kind and lovable Father Glorieux, the gentle and self-sacrificing Sisters, whose ashes lie buried here?

Sunday Washington Cemetery will be the Mecca to which thousands will tend.

On that day the annual visitation will occur.

The Rev. Father Eugene of Normandy, Mo., will assist Rev. Father P. M. Jones in the exercises which will take place.

If the day be propitious the grounds will not hold the gathered multitude.

Cartmel's extract teeth without pain.

As an aftermath to Halloween at Center College, Danville, the upper classmen forced the plores to haul them through the streets in carriages.

FRESH BALTIMORE OYSTERS.
Received daily. Always the best.

THE HOME STORE.

WE ARE TOO BUSY

To say much in this issue, but take time to tell you that we are better organized and equipped to serve the public this season than ever before. Our clothing and shoes are the productions of the master designers of the United States. This fact is fully recognized and appreciated or else our store would not be crowded with customers each day.

We Give Globe Stamps

Saturday's Verdict!

We Give Globe Stamps

The largest day's sales in the history of this store. Would have been larger if we could have waited on more. We probably sold more Drygoods than all the drygoods stores in Mason county combined. WHAT DOES IT MEAN? IT DEMONSTRATED THE PUBLIC'S APPROVAL OF OUR METHODS. It means the people appreciate our four year's work to make Maysville "the" town of Northern Kentucky; it means the people appreciate the high grade goods we sell, the bright and inviting store we have made, the good service we are giving and the fact that our goods are MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES.
